

Meeting community needs in Washington. More than 31,000 people of all ages and backgrounds are helping to solve problems and strengthen communities through 157 national service projects across Washington. Serving with national and community nonprofit organizations, faith-based groups, schools, and local agencies, these citizens tutor and mentor children, coordinate after-school programs, build homes, conduct neighborhood patrols, organize local homeland security efforts, respond to disasters, and recruit and manage volunteers. This year, the Corporation for National and Community Service will provide more than $26,300,000 to support Washington communities through three major programs:

Senior Corps: More than 16,000 seniors in Washington contribute their time and talents in one of three programs: Foster Grandparents, who serve one-on-one with more than 3,900 young people who have special needs; Senior Companions, who help more than 1,100 other seniors live independently in their homes; and RSVP volunteers, who work with more than 2,000 local groups to meet a wide range of community needs, including safety patrols with local police departments, environmental projects, tutoring and mentoring, and responding to natural disasters.

AmeriCorps: This year, more than 1,700 individuals are serving in Washington communities as AmeriCorps members. In return, the members receive an education award of up to $4,725 to help pay for college or pay back student loans. To date, more than 7,900 Washington residents have qualified for education awards totaling more than $36,000,000. Two-thirds of AmeriCorps grants are made by the Washington Commission on National and Community Service. National nonprofits, such as the American Red Cross and City Year, make other assignments. Other members serve in AmeriCorps*VISTA, and AmeriCorps*NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps).

Learn and Serve America: Learn and Serve America provides schools, colleges, and community organizations with grants for service-learning. These grants help make it possible for more than 14,000 Washington students to meet community needs while improving their civic and academic skills and learning the habits of good citizenship.

"As Governors, we recognize the value of national service as a tool in addressing needs in our states. From tutoring students to responding to floods to assisting local police to cleaning streams and building parks, we have seen national service at work in our states. We do not want to lose this force for good in our communities."

Governor Gary Locke

² This is the headquarters of a multi-site program. Participants are listed with the city and state where they serve.

Through the President's Student Service Challenge, students in kindergarten through college receive presidential recognition for their outstanding community service. Students who serve 100 hours or more are eligible for a President's Student Service Award. Since 1999, more than 2,343 Washington students have received this award. In the President's Student Service Scholarship program, two students from each high school may receive a $1,000 college scholarship for outstanding service to the community. Since 1997, more than 760 Washington students have received these scholarships.

The National Service-Learning Leader Schools program recognizes middle and high schools for their excellence in service-learning. Kamiakin Junior High School in Kirkland, Student Link in Vashon, Langley Middle School, and Granite Falls High School have been recognized as Leader Schools.
